PANORAMA

1958

A special kind of magic
Lies embedded in a book.
This magic is man-made.
It lies there patiently waiting
For that first inquisitive look - -
A wait that is repaid.

Books, by way of magic,
Form a stairway, height unknown.
You read you way to the top
To find your world has grown!
Your eager steps may meet some doubt
But determined you climb on. . .
In joy there may be dread. . .
And later, as you near the top,
You find the doubt has gone.
You soar now on ahead!

You struggled through the hardest times
And marched right through the best.
You found in patience, partial strength,
In books you found the rest.

Judy Wilson, 1958

Salutatorian

In 1946 Mrs. Genevieve Lafollette held in her ranks twelve of the 1958 graduates. Do you recognize the twelve?

Carol Lewis, Ridgeville candidate for pumpkin queen, ranked second in the county.

Gail Macy and Rhonda Steele were marshals at the 1957 commencement.

The class of 1958 baked and sold cookies to finance their Junior Class trip.

The graduates were welcomed into the Alumni Association at the 1958 banquet.

Dr. Leo M. Hauptman of Ball State Teachers College giving the Commencement address.

Rhonda Steele and Judy Wilson are recognized as salutatorian and valedictorian.

Class president Gail Macy receives his diploma.

Junior marshals Sharon Upchurch and Rex Riddlebarger lead the graduates from the stage.

HIGH SCHOOL PROM

CAROL LEWIS, Prom Queen

Carol Lewis and her escort Bob Gilmore lead the Grand March.

It's a big moment when the bag bursts and the dancers swarm to catch the colorful balloons.

When the eighth grade held their formal party, members of the class donned paper mortar boards and Mr. Smithson, trustee, presented them with diplomas in a mock commencement ceremony.

The play cast, Mrs. Young, and Mr. Welker (sponsors) at a rehearsal of the junior class play, "A Case of Springtime."

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

RIDGEVILLE CHAPTER

The Ridgeville Chapter of the National Honor Society is in its second year. Two seniors, Rhonda Steele and Judy Wilson, were charter members. Initiated during the year were Carol Ann Lewis, Sharon Stanley, Sharon Upchurch, and Jan Chalfant. The faculty members sponsoring the society are Mrs. Butler, chairman; Mrs. Jerles; Mrs. Young; and Mr. Striker.

The second semester initiation, held April 22, was open to the public. Mr. Paul Beck, county superintendent of schools, was the speaker. The chapter officers and Mr. French conducted the initiation services.

To be eligible for membership in the Honor Society, students must have a high scholastic average and meet other qualifications of leadership, service, and character.

BAND

Twirlers: Janice Hancock, Judy Cope, drum majorette Carolyn Alexander, Nila Banter, Linda Weekly.

Practicing outside on a sunny spring day.

The band is now ready to give a concert.

Two clubs were formed in the eighth grade English class, the Pen Pal Club and the Hobby Club. The Pen Pal Club obtained names of students in foreign countries and wrote to them. The Hobby Club found almost every eighth grader had a hobby, so they sponsored a Hobby Show.

At the left; Connie Rutherford, president of Pen Pals, reads a letter from a friend in Lyons, France, to Rosalie Medler and Tom Fisk.

The noon recreation committee: Janet Smith, Judy May, Karen Thornburg, and Marjorie Smith. Which one is the Elvis Presley fan?

LIBRARIANS - STANDING: Keith Hollowell, Joyce Wood, Carolyn Huffman, Sharon Upchurch, Cathy Auker, Betty Meeks, Judy Haines, Cecil Blunk. SEATED: Fred Stewart, Elvan Barnes, Carol Lewis, Rhonda Steele, Judy Wilson, Gail Macy.

And you say that you don't normally see these. . .er. . .students. . . around the school? Ridiculous! They're merely normal, happy, and carefree young journalists rejoicing at the completion of another yearbook. . . you 1958 PAN-ORAMA. You have a complaint to make? Due to circumstances beyond control, please address all complaints to Ye Olde Nut House, Ridgeville, Indiana. Deceased members may be found under tombstones with epitaphs saying, "WE HATE YEARBOOKS!"
